

MONTE TONDO

Amarone della Valpolicella DOCG 2016

91

Points

There's a potent, earthy note at first, but this blows off to reveal some decent, lightly spiced currant and raisin character that follows through to the full palate, which shows gentle intensity and light firmness. This will improve after another year or so in bottle. Try from 2023.

James Suckling, JamesSuckling.com

JAMESSUCKLING.COM 🍷

Winemaker

Gino, Luca, and Marta
Magnabosco

Location

Veneto, Italy

Annual Production

3,472 bottles

