

MARTOCCIA DI LUCA BRUNELLI

Rosso di Montalcino DOC 2013

The 2013 Rosso di Montalcino is slightly muddled from an aromatic point of view with layers of cherry, spice and leather that lack clear definition. There is a savory front of spice and cured meat that rises from the glass, covering some of the brightness of the fruit found underneath.

Otherwise, the mouthfeel shows medium texture and density and the wine achieves a good state of integration and informality. Pair it with meatloaf or grilled pork chops.
